togetherall

Togetherall is a safe, anonymous, online peer community to support your mental health. Register today.

Feeling overwhelmed?
Struggling socially?
Not feeling like yourself?

Togetherall comes with a unique set of obstacles, opportunities, successes, and setbacks. The freedom and adventure that you're experiencing as a student can also come with feelings of loneliness, worry, and stress. That's a lot to process. This is why Baylor University has chosen to partner with a company providing virtual peer-to-peer mental health and wellbeing support-Togetherall.

Togetherall's online community is clinically moderated by mental health professionals and offers students a safe and anonymous place to express their thoughts, concerns and triumphs. Resources are FREE for students (aged 16+) to use and are available 24/7/365. Students can give and get support from others as well as use mental health and wellbeing courses and resources. To learn more, visit Togetherall.com and register using your student email address. Or go to this link right now. Remember it's free, anonymous and available right now!

If you have items you would like to see appear in What's New BU, submit them for consideration by Friday at 8 a.m. by clicking here. View past issues of What's New BU here.
