We know college comes with a unique set of obstacles, opportunities, successes, and setbacks. The freedom and adventure that you're experiencing as a student can also come with feelings of loneliness, worry, stress. That's a lot to process. This is why Baylor University has chosen to partner with a company providing virtual peer-to-peer mental health and counseling services. Togetherall's online community is clinically moderated by mental health professionals and offers students a safe and anonymous place to express their feelings. For more information, visit Togetherall.com.

View past issues of What's New BU for information or contact student email address. Or go to (aged 16+) to use and are available 24/7/365. Students can give and get support from others. Baylor University is here for you when you need us.
