WHAT'S NEW

November 4, 2024

Supporting Each Other Through The Election

With the 2024 presidential election nearing its close, we know each of us may experience this season differently. Student Life is here to help our campus community engage thoughtfully and to support one another with respect and care. We encourage you to take advantage of the well-being resources and spaces listed below for thoughtful prayer, conversation and reflection. Together, let's work to cultivate a community of care, understanding and respect, where all students feel supported and valued.
